Professional Trainer & Presenter, Mindfulness Coach, Education Specialist for ZUMBA, Content Creator, Podacster

As a vibrant individual I have always been on a journey of reaching my personal best which has given me opportunities to learn about myself and become a better person every day at everything that I do. I am an Architect by education. But having immense passion for dance & fitness brought me to become a licensed Zumba Instructor. I further accepted an opportunity to become a trainer/education specialist for Zumba Fitness LLC based in Miami, Florida, USA and till date I have mentored over 3000 individuals towards their desired goals. As a continuous learner, I followed my passion to become an ICF certified Health and Fitness Mindset coach, Mindfulness coach, PCC coach & certified Professional Trainer & Presenter. I have been grateful to train and mentor individuals, organizations and communities to perform their best and achieve their personal as well as business/career goals. My motto is to empower individuals & you must "Invest in Yourself".
